

English Composition Essay Contest 22-23

About the Contest

Cameron's English Composition program, in the Department of Communication, English and Foreign Languages, is awarding prizes for the best work in some of the major assignment categories in Comp I (ENGL 1113) and Comp II (ENGL 1213). Winners receive cash prizes (1st place, $100; runner-up, $50) and the opportunity to have their work published in future editions of CU Write, the Cameron Composition Textbook.

Submissions for the 2022-2023 contest cycle are due by February 17th, 2023.

To be eligible, essays must have been composed for a CU composition course (ENGL 1113 or ENGL 1213) during the 2022 calendar year (Spring 2022, Summer 2022, or Fall 2022 semesters).

To submit an essay, complete this entry form and send it, along with your contest submission (as a Word document), to Cameron.essay.contest@gmail.com

You should read your instructor's feedback on your essay and make revisions before submitting it to the contest. Proofread and edit your work carefully. Winning submissions may be copyedited before publication.

Winners will be announced at the English Composition Awards Ceremony, 3:30-5pm on April 11, 2023, in the Shepler Ballroom.

Winners from CU-Duncan or the Stephens County region can receive their prize at the Duncan Awards Ceremony, 3:30-5pm on April 18th, 2023, in Duncan 116.
